MISSISSIPPI STATE PERSONNEL BOARD EMPLOYEES PARTICIPATE IN SALVATION ARMY CLOTHING/CANNED FOOD DRIVE

Jackson, Miss. – Mississippi State Personnel Board partnered with the Salvation Army Jackson Corps for the MSPB Spring Community Service Project. Over the course of a week and a half, MSPB team members contributed more than a thousand items of clothing and hundreds of canned goods in addition to monetary donations.

“Through the Salvation Army Jackson Corps’ commitment to their pledge to ‘do the most good,’ the Salvation Army makes a significant impact to thousands of families in the Jackson Metro area each year,” said MSPB Executive Director Deanne Mosley. “We were honored to assist the Salvation Army by providing resources to support their efforts to help those in need and change lives in our community.”

The Mississippi State Personnel Board serves more than 30,000 public employees and 130 state agencies, and also provides administrative support for the Personal Service Contract Review Board and Employee Appeals Board. For more information, please visit <http://www.mspb.ms.gov>.
